A substantial reward is offered by Miss Camp for the return of a pearl pin lost in Eastman Hall, last Thursday. The pin is prized because of associations rather than for its actual value. If found, please return to business office for reward

Help me! Please!
I make your campus attractive.
I wish to grow.
I am the Grass.
Do not wear ugly paths.
Use the walks.

There will be no sewing club tonight.

Wednesday,
Apr.10

The International Relations Club again urges all students to consider the questionnaire which will be in your post-office boxes today. Place your results in the Talahi box in the post-office.

The International Relations Club will meet Wednesday, 8 P.M. Room Q. A novel peace program has been planned which will take place after the election of officers. This program is given in connection with National Peace Day which is Apr.19.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students who received incompletes for the winter quarter should make arrangements with the instructor to remove the incomplete before the last week of the quarter, otherwise the grade will be recorded as a failure.

Pins, Rings, announcements and cards for those in graduating classes or others desiring them will be on display in Main Hall this week. Come and decide which pin or ring you wish to order.

There will be a contest program presented by the College League of Women Voters on Wednesday evening, April 17, in Room Q at 7 o'clock. This contest is put on by all the colleges throughout the state that wish to take part. Each college chooses its own type of program. The St. Cloud Teachers College League has chosen a panel discussion entitled "Looking Forward to the Presidential Election. Mrs. Margaret Roesti is leading the discussion. Others who are taking part are Marion Lundberg, Judith Melin, Eula Neumann.

Two of the points upon which we are judged are: The attendance, and the number taking part in the program. We therefore urge all women to be present and to help us in our general discussion.

June Graduates - Cap and Gown Notice: Will all sophomores and seniors who expect to graduate in June, report to the visual aids room this week to get cap and gown measurements taken. Measurements will be taken from 8 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. daily. Be sure to attend to this matter promptly.

Reserve the 3rd hour, Friday, Apr. 19, for the special Peace Day program sponsored by the Student Council. Miss B. Atkins, a former member of the T. C. Faculty, will be guest speaker.
