Residents in the neighborhood of the St. Cloud State Teachers College are protesting about the amount of paper, especially that torn into bits and strewn about our section of the city. The same criticism could be directed to the appearance of our halls and rooms. Let us do our part in keeping St. Cloud attractive. We should have pride in our institution and in the city in which it is located.

The CHRONICLE banquet, originally scheduled for tonight, is postponed until next week. Notice of the new date will be placed on the board in the postoffice. Watch it.

No parking in back of Carol Hall, Please.

All students of the college are expected to attend the Monday convocations. Those students who receive aid will be dismissed from work the next time they miss convocation. Only those who have student teaching at that hour are excused.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students who are to have teaching assignments for the first summer session are asked to report to Mr. Talbot their program of other subjects. Such students on the degree curriculum should leave in the Riverview office two copies of their summer program initialed by their respective advisers by June 1. When assignments are ready June 9, two year students will leave official program cards for registrar and deans in the Riverview office while degree students will leave such cards with their advisers.

Students enrolled on the two year course who plan to attend summer school may make out their programs in the Business Office.

We need all types of costumes, of all periods and of all nationalities, for the June commencement services. If you have any to loan, please report to Dr. Barker, Rachel Lee Norman, or Clare Warweg.

Found: Girl's tweed sport jacket; also a pair of pigskin gloves. Owner may identify in the business office.

Every student who plans to graduate in June, July, or August 1941 is asked to leave personal photograph in Riverview Office at once. Prospective graduates' records will not be cleared until this photo is on file.

Did you ever dance to the music of a Hammond Electric Organ? Well that's only one of the things featured by Don Strickland's orchestra. Buy your ticket to the Sophomore Prom now! Say fellows! did you know that corsages are boycotted? So it's only one buck for the biggest dance of the year.

Notice to all June Graduates--Please get your copy of the M.E.A. Journal for May at Mr. Jerde's Office.

Final Sophomore Election on Wednesday, May 21. Vote on Wednesday for next year's officers.

All secretaries' books and records for permanent filing should be checked in as soon as the business of each organization has closed for this year. The secretaries' books are filed in the Student Organization Office and the treasurers' books are filed with Miss Hansen in the Business Office. May 28 is the dead line. Grades will be held until these records have been filed.

The general chairman of the committees named below is responsible for filing a complete report in the Student Organization Office before May 28. Grades will be held until these reports are filed. Please remember how you needed these reports when you were appointed this year. Orientation, Homecoming, Youth Week, Senior Winter Frolic, Talahi Revue, Junior Ball, Sophomore Prom, Freshman Dance.

The Graduate Week report will be due June 4.

All college women are invited to attend the annual May Day Breakfast at Talahi Lodge at 8 o'clock Friday morning, May 30. Tickets will be on sale at a later date.

The Big Formal of the year--the Sophomore All-College Prom. Girls ask your home-town boy friend, and fellows this is one dance that's worth bringing "the one and only" from back home to. The theme--an outdoor garden. The Band--"Don Strickland, his orchestra and electric organ". The Rule--No corsages. The price of admission--only $1.00 per couple. The guarantee--that everyone except the cleanup committee is going to have a "Grand" time. Here is the remedy for that long week end! The formal everybody is talking about--The Sophomore All-College Prom--on Thursday night the 29th of May. We are all going to stay at school that week end so let's plan on being at the Social Function of this school year. Buy your programs, which serve as tickets, at the Union, in the Halls, or see Alice Cook or Bea Miller.
