Fiddler On the Roof

Book by Joseph Stein

Music by Jerry Bock

Lyrics by Sheldon Harnick

Directed by Fred Tessler

June 14-18 and June 21-25

Based on Sholem Aleichem stories by special permission of Arnold Perl

The town of Anatevka comes to life in this charming musical set in Russia. Tevye tries to marry off three of his daughters with such favorite tunes as "If I Were a Rich Man," "Matchmaker, Matchmaker," and "Sunrise, Sunset." A musical comedy the whole family will enjoy.

The Mousetrap

by Agatha Christie

Directed by Drew Kahl

June 28- July 2

A "whodunit" such as only Agatha Christie can write. Eight people are trapped in a snowstorm in an old mansion-hotel. One of them is murdered. Will the detective trap the murderer before another person is killed? Can the audience solve the mystery before the detective? The suspense and wit add up to an exciting evening.

The Man Who Came To Dinner

by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman

Directed by Roger Schultz

July 5-9

This hilarious comedy will take you on a rollicking trip of misadventures brought about by a celebrity dinner guest who falls and breaks his hip. In his convalescence he takes over the household and the resulting chaos, including convicts, penguins, and a murderess, leads to outrageous comedy.

The Miracle Worker

by William Gibson

Directed by Jack Reuler

July 12-16

Annie Sullivan indeed brought about a miracle in teaching blind and deaf Helen Keller to communicate. This is the poignant story of that miracle. Clever, rebellious, often violent Helen Keller encounters the stubborn tenacity of the boldly realistic Annie Sullivan. A touching and true story of dedication and strength, it has inspired many to teach the unteachable.

Fools

by Neil Simon

Directed by Andrew Vorder Bruegge

July 19-23

What would you do if you were a teacher in a town cursed with stupidity? Leon Tolchinski must teach at least one person in town one thing within 24 hours or the curse of stupidity will fall on him as well. Witty dialog and slapstick humor characterize this fanciful romp through the village of...I forget the name.

A Funny Thing Happened On the Way To the Forum July 26-30 and August 2-6

Book by Burt Shevelove and Larry Gelbart

Music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

Directed by Richard Nimke

A musical comedy set in ancient Rome? From the opening number, "Comedy Tonight," the story has the usual mistaken identities, sappy lovers, leering old men, and imaginative slaves. All this adds up to a funny thing happening in the theatre. (Adult situations)
