GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

"C" - Vitamin C exhibit - Main Hall To avoid "Spring Fever" eat citrus fruits or canned tomatoes daily.

Because this is the last week of the quarter and because the girls are busy with term papers and tests, there will be no Red Cross sewing this week. About one hundred girls signed up for the sewing project. We are expecting this group to participate one hundred per cent. Let's have a large group working next Monday.

Physical examinations - All students taking physical education during the spring quarter who have not had a physical examination please make arrangements at the Health Service for this examination.

The student who borrowed a hot water bottle from the Health Service please return it.

Help conserve electricity by turning off lights that are not in use. Now, at the end of the quarter, is a good time to clean your locker of unnecessary papers. Help prevent fires.

Student organizations are invited to use the Student Union for private parties on Monday evenings or any afternoon. There will be a charge of 75¢ for an evening or 25¢ per hour for afternoons. Make reservations with Mr. Anderson one week in advance.

Students not expecting to enroll for the spring quarter must file a clearance certificate. Go to your dean this week for the blank to be filled out before you leave.

There are opportunities for college women to earn board and room this spring quarter. See Dean Garvey if you are interested.

Bring a useable deck of cards to the Student Union and exchange it for a coke.

Students should inquire in the Textbook Library for lost books. Articles which have been lost may be claimed in the Business Office.

Grades for the winter quarter will be held in the Business Office for students who have any of the following charges: Library fines, Textbooks not returned, and Fees in the Business Office.

No changes can be made in programs after Tuesday, March 10. After that date a fee of one dollar will be charged to students who change their programs. No credit will be given for courses which are not on the program cards in the Registrar's office.

PLEASE NOTE AND PLAN ACCORDINGLY Spring Quarter fees for all students are to be paid on March 9, 10, and 11 from 8:30 to 12:00 a.m. in the Student Post Office. Notice that payments are to be received in the morning only. If you have a financial problem, do not wait until you must pay the one dollar penalty before consulting with your Dean.

Save March 14 for a hike down the river. Come and cook your supper with the other hoboes. Watch for further announcements.
