

The Weekly Bulletin

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

ST. CLOUD, MINNESOTA

No. VI

March 13, 1939

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Registration: Students who have not cleared their records in the Business Office will not receive class cards in their classes on Monday, March 13th. Their registration programs will not be approved if they have any of the following:
Library fine
Textbooks not returned
Unpaid fees in the Business office

A fee of one dollar will be charged students for changes made in their programs for the spring quarter.

Textbooks: The textbook library will be open from 1:00 until 5:00 P.M. on Monday, March 13 for the redistribution of books. On Tuesday it will be open from 8:00-12:00 and from 1:00-5:00. Books will not be issued to people who are on the Textbook delinquent list for the winter quarter.

Health Office: Students should notify Health Office on first day of absence in order to obtain readmission slips.

Buy Choral Club Baby Bonds! Help the Choral Club finance its trip to Detroit. The Baby Bonds, selling for $.10 (ten cents) will go on sale immediately after convocation and will be sold in the halls all day today. One Baby Bond will admit the bearer to the Choral Club Concert to be given in the auditorium on Thursday evening, March 16. The bonds will admit only T.C. students and faculty. Adult admission will be $.50. Buy your Baby Bond, only one-tenth of a dollar!

William F. Munch, conservation leader, will lecture at the regular convocation on April 17 rather than on Tuesday of this week.

Women Students And Faculty: The W.S.G.A. invites you to a demonstration of the care of the skin to be held this afternoon in the Social Room during the sixth hour. An expert will show correct treatment in the care and improvement of the skin.

All girls swimming in pageant must be present at every meeting this week. First meeting Monday from 7:30 - 9:00 P.M.

Exhibit of work done by the Crafts Class of the winter quarter is being held in the Art Room this week.

MONDAY, MARCH 13:

2:00 The W.S.G.A. invites the women students and faculty members to a demonstration of the care of the skin. An expert will show correct treatment in the care and improvement of the skin.
Social Room

7:30-9:00 All girls swimming in pageant must be present at meeting.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14:

11:00 Regular meeting of the Rural Life Club. Panel discussion about rural life problems for teachers going into rural teaching. All people on the two-year curriculum are urged to come and others interested are cordially invited.
Social Rm.

11:00 W.S.G.A. Board meeting in Mrs. Garvey's office.

4:00 Tryouts for the spring play. All interested please report. This play is open to all students of the college.
Auditorium

7:30 Splash Club practice in Eastman Hall.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15:

THURSDAY, MARCH 16:

- 9:00 A.M. All students are urged to see the films, "Behind the Shadows" and "Men and Medicine" to be presented by Dr. E.A. Meyerding of the Minnesota Public Health Association.
- 4:00 P.M. Auditorium Anyone interested in reading a part in a radio production of Everyman may report for reading tryouts.
- 7:00 P.M. Room Q Meeting of the Newman Club. Father Berthold O.S.B., chaplain at the St. Cloud Reformatory will be guest speaker.
- 8:15 P.M. Benefit concert by the Choral Club. Students admitted by presentation of Baby Bond.
- 7:30 P.M. Practice of Splash Club.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17:

Gala St. Patrick's day benefit dance for Choral Club. Admission 25 cents per person.

Don't forget to put in your application for a position on the Chronicle or Talahi staff.

This bulletin should contain information and announcements pertinent to faculty and students of the college. Kindly cooperate in making this bulletin a success by submitting announcements and information to the President's office before 9:00 A.M. Monday morning.

Student Council