

Tuesday, Feb. 4 Juniors, please pay your class dues (.50¢) to Henry Hammer.

There will be a meeting of the Senior Class tomorrow, the fourth hour in Room Q. All seniors be sure to come!

Girl's dance club will meet at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday night. Be Present!

STUDENTS! FACULTY! We're still looking for old lamps, smoking stands, ash trays, etc. to redecorate for the STUDENT UNION. Here's an easy chance for you to do your part. Look around! Ask your friends! Bring contributions to Mr. Cotton's Room.

Wednesday Feb. 5 Practice for the Women's water pageant will be held at eight o'clock P.M. Everyone who has tried out for it, please be present.

BOOK REVIEW CLUB Instead of meeting the second and fourth Wednesdays the Book Review Club will henceforth meet on the first and third Wednesdays at 7:00 in Room N (Miss Budge's Room). Juneal Bopp will review Graham Maxtone's (Mrs. Anstruther) Mrs. Miniver this Wednesday.

The League of Women Voters will meet Wednesday evening, Feb. 5, at 7 P.M. in Room Q. Miss Mabel Johnson will speak on "Public Health Program Included in the Social Security Act." A trip to the State Legislature on Feb. 20 will be discussed.

Organization Presidents or Secretaries: Write-ups for Talahi are due. Please see that they are in by Wednesday, Feb. 5, at the latest.

English Club Radio Group meets Wednesday night in the Social Room at 8:00 P.M.

Sign up on the Blackfriar Bulletin Board if you wish to work on the Costume or Property Committee for the Freshman Class Play.

Thursday Feb. 6 Men! Do you want a chance to express your opinion on "Aid to Britain"? Then come to the Y.M.C.A. group discussion Thursday at 7:00 in Room 13.

All Lutheran students are invited to attend the annual banquet of the L.S.A. to be given Thursday evening, Feb. 13, at 7:00. Cost per plate will be $0.35. An inspirational and entertaining evening of Christian fellowship is promised those who attend.

Players! Wouldn't you like to have some marionettes entertain you at the meeting, Thursday at 4:00? You'll see Pocahontas and John Smith done by wooden marionettes, and Mr. Rabbit's Jamboree done by spongex marionettes. Remember to bring your 15¢ for the Talahi picture!!

There will be a short meeting of the Freshman Class Thursday, Second Hour.

The following pictures will be taken for the Talahi Feb. 6, Thursday at Christiansons'.

7:00	Waverly	8:00	Storytellers
7:15	Athenaeum	8:15	Photozetean
7:30	Minerva	8:30	Al Sirat
7:45	Thalia	8:45	Kappa Delta Pi
		9:00	Blackfriars

Friday Feb. 7 BASKETBALL SCORE Duluth 36
St. Cloud 39

Watch for announcement in regard to a game this week.

HOCKEY SCORES Wassau vs. St. Cloud 3 to 3, 7 to 5
Hockey this week Feb. 7 Gustavis here
Feb. 8 St. Thomas here

Yo-Hi dues and the Quarter Assessment must be paid to Norma Nelson by Feb. 7, 1941. This assessment need not keep anyone from attending the formal. If it is impossible to pay at this time, see Miss Ferro in Room D. These payments must be taken care of by all those wishing to attend the formal.

Monday
Feb. 10 The International Relations Club will hold a special meeting on Monday, Feb. 10 at 7:00 P.M. The speaker is Mr. Joseph C. D. Sing, recently arrived from China who will speak on the Chinese War. The hour is set for 7:00 in place of 8:00 in order that Mr. Sing may return to Minneapolis.

The meetings of the Student Council are open meetings. If you are interested in what your council does, you are welcome to attend the meetings at 7:00 P.M. on the second and fourth Mondays of the month in Room F.

Tuesday
Feb. 11 Hertha Glatz, Contralto, Tech High School, presented by Civic Music Association, 8:00 P. M. In Hertha Glatz the music world has an artist with the rare gift of being equally effective in the fields of concert, opera and oratorio.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mai-Mai Sze, Feb. 20, evening. Mai-Mai Sze is the daughter of the former Chinese Ambassador to the United States, Dr. Alfred Sze. She was born in Tientsin, China. At the beginning of the war, she went with her parents to London, where her father had been appointed Chinese Minister to the Court of St. James.

All students who have just returned from practice teaching in the country please register in the Placement Bureau at once.

Please call for all your lost articles in the Business Office. We have an assortment of glass cases, glasses, pens, pencils, necklaces, etc.

If there are enough students who want a ride to the cities at the end of the quarter, a bus will be chartered. If you are interested, please sign the list in the post office.

A fee of one dollar will be charged students who fail to take an examination as scheduled.

Students who received an incomplete in any subject must make arrangements for make-up work with the instructor before the close of the third week of the next quarter. All incompletes must be removed before the last week of the quarter.

The Textbook Library will be open every day from 11-12, 3-4, and free hours. It is also open from 8:30-12 Saturdays.

The series of talks and demonstrations of "Personal and Social Cues for Courteous Living with Others" will be continued next Monday, Feb. 10, during the sixth hour in the auditorium. All students are invited.

Remember FEBRUARY 22. MARDI GRAS at T.C., a special time for festivity and celebration--when carnival is king and everyone has fun. YOU are invited. Get your costumes (they're not a must) in readiness. We want to see you all at this year's Senior Frolic.

Division of Social Studies: On Wed. Feb. 12, fifth hour in Room Q, there will be a meeting of all majors in the field of Social Studies (History, Social Science, Social Studies, Geography). Business: Registration problems.

Come all you fellows and girls!! Don't miss the best time of your life at the Yo-Hi Valentine Formal! The Date Bureau is still waiting to help you out. You girls who want an escort and you men who want an invitation be sure to apply. Headquarters are still in Room D, or you may see Rita Thiessen at any time. Put in your applications now!! Time's a' wastin'!!!