

Tuesday
April 29 Annual Concert--Girls' A Cappella Choir and the Dance Group in joint concert. Auditorium, 8:15 P.M. Directors: Helen Steen Huls and Evangeline Jaffurs.

Departmental "At-homes" Eastman Home
English Majors, April 29 4:15-5:30 P.M.
Art Majors (fine and industrial arts) April 30 4:15-5:30 P.M.
Physical Education Majors (Men & Women) May 1 8:00-9:15 P.M.
At-Homes for rural education cadets will be continued in the Fall.

Wednesday
April 30 Advanced Social Dancing Class will meet at 8:00 o'clock Wednesday, April 30, Eastman Hall.

Science Club meeting at 7:00 P.M. Wednesday, April 30 in the Biology Laboratory. Election of officers for 1941-42 will be held and Dr. Beltz of the Chemistry department will discuss gasolines.

English Club presents one of Minnesota's own writers, Miss Meridel Le Sueur, on Wednesday at 8:00 in the Social Room. She will discuss for us "American Literature and the Folk Influence". Everyone is cordially invited. Members are urged to attend, for there will be election of officers. Admission is by membership card or 10¢.

Important There will be a special Minerva meeting on Wed., April 30, at 4:00 P.M. in Miss Hill's room. Please be present.

The T. S. Roberts Ornithology Club, a member club of the Wildlife Federation, is sponsoring a sale of conservation stamps in the hall on Wednesday afternoon, April 30. The funds are used to make more effective our national, state and local conservation projects and programs. Stamps are sold at the rate of 2 for 5¢, or at $1.00 per sheet.

7:00 P.M. Wednesday Room N
For the concluding meeting of the Book Review Club Arthur Barsness will outline the history of English literature from the Celtic to the present era.

There will be a special meeting of the Camera Craft Club Wednesday the fifth hour. This meeting is very important. Note the place of meeting on the Camera Craft Club bulletin board.

All seniors who have not yet paid your dues, pay in the business office at once. Your 85¢ must be paid before you graduate.

The League of Women Voters meets Wednesday evening April 30 in Room Q at 7:00 o'clock. Miss Weir of Technical High is the speaker. All college women are invited.

Thursday
May 1 The T. S. Roberts Ornithology Club presents intimate color pictures of animal life taken and explained by Joe Kuebelbeck of Cold Spring. The movies will be shown at 8 P.M. in Room Q. Everyone is urged to take advantage of this visual recording in nature's animal haunts and habits. Interest and a smile is the only admission.

The group in Scout Leadership will meet in Room 12 at 6:30 P.M. as prearranged. Bring all literature.

Second period Thursday, Social Room. Edward Arlington Robinson's Tristram will be reviewed by Dorothea Ohs. This is the last meeting of the Book Hour this year.

Newman Club will hold its meeting, Thursday, May 1, 7:00 in bandroom. Bishop Busch will be the speaker of the evening. Election will be held. All are welcome.

Election of officers for next year's sophomore class on Thursday, May 1.

A Wesley Foundation members please be present at the Thursday evening meeting held in Miss Cole's room at Riverview at 7:00 o'clock. Reports on the conference held in St. Paul last week-end are to be given and nomination of next Fall's officers.

Players Club, Attention If you want to see drama that is really different be in the auditorium on Thursday at 4 to see the Experimental Groups Life of Man. It's really worthwhile. Players, members and anybody interested are cordially invited.

There will be a meeting of the Sophomore class Thursday morning, second hour, 9:00 o'clock in the auditorium. We must nominate next year's officers and have a report of the Sophomore All-College Formal. Let's have every Sophomore present during elections.

At the regular meeting of the L.S.A. on Thursday, May 1, at 7:00 there will be election of officers for 1941-42.

IMPORTANT NOTICE Federal Aid Time Cards are Due Monday, May 5, 1941. State and State Supplement time sheets are due Thursday, May 1.

Saturday
May 3 Play day at Talahi Lodge! Saturday afternoon May 3, at 2:30. Come and play soft ball, volley ball, deck tennis or horse shoe. Bring your picnic lunch if you wish. Pop, candy and ice cream will be sold in the Lodge.

To the Faculty and Students: The T-Square Club of the School of Architecture at St. John's University extends a cordial invitation to the faculty and the students to attend its annual architectural exhibit which will be held in the Science Hall on May 3, 4, and 5.

The exhibit will prove not only entertaining but highly instructive as well. The wide appeal of its various features will interest such as are contemplating architecture as a future field of activity as also those who wish to enhance their cultural background. The exhibit will feature the following: Metal Craft, Pen and Pencil Techniques, Decorative Design, Church and Home Models, Architectural Design, Ornamental Iron.

Student guides will be at hand to offer explanation and whatever information is desired. Make it a date to meet at The Architectural exhibit at St. John's University on May 3, 4, and 5.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

We desire to get the names and addresses of high school seniors who may enroll at our college next fall. Will you help by giving this information to Dean Garvey as soon as possible?

Students may obtain their golf tickets for the remainder of the spring quarter for fifty cents in the business office beginning May 1. Faculty men and wives may obtain season tickets in the business office for $5.

Lost: Monday 28, a gold tiger eye ring between 4:30 and 5:30 in the boy's locker room. Write to M. U. % post office box 631.

Conservation Week. Public Gathering. Mr. Cyril Plattes of the Minnesota Conservation Department will show motion pictures of the Flight of Wild Geese through the Lake Traverse area, and other pictures on May 5 at the Central Junior High School at 8 P.M. All students are urged to attend this meeting. There is no admission charge.

A representative from a Minneapolis Hospital will be here Thursday of this week to speak to all girls interested in the nursing profession. See Miss Johnson sometime during Wednesday to make arrangements for a conference.

Seniors pay your dues in the Business Office this week--today, if possible.

Come to the Lodge Saturday afternoon at 2:30 for a good game of soft ball, volley ball, deck tennis, horse shoe or all four! See you there!