In a recent survey it was found that out of 139 people who had been graduated from our secondary course during the past three years, 40 of them were asked to help with speech extra-curricular work. Much of this was in declamation. Because of this demand Dr. Kaump will conduct three sessions: March 12, March 19, and March 26, at 1:00 (Fifth Period) when she will present material helpful to this type of speech work. It is urged that all English majors, Speech minors, and any others interested in this work will attend. The meetings are to be in the Social Room.

Thursday
March 13 The Music Club will meet on Thursday night, March 13, in the Social Room at 8 o'clock. Mr. Erwin Hertz of the St. Cloud Public Schools will speak on Public School Music. Several students of the college will present instrumental selections. Let's have a good attendance.

Wesely Foundation will hold their regular meeting in the Art Room Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock, March 13.

The Principles of Scoutmastership class will meet Thursday evening at 7 p.m. in room 12 for the purpose of organization and setting a convenient meeting time for future meetings. Anyone who has not done so may register for the course at this time.

Mrs. Griffin will review Hemingway's For Whom the Bell Tolls, Thursday morning at 9:00 in the Social Room.

Nominating of Student Council officers for next year will take place Thursday, second hour, in the auditorium. Be there! All nominations will be made from the floor. The primary election will take place one week after the nominations have been made.

LSAer's attention. Start the new quarter out right by attending the first regular meeting Thursday, March 13, at 7 o'clock in the Social Room.

Thursday
March 13 The Newman Club will hold its regular meeting in the band room at 7:00, March 13. The question box will be conducted so have your questions ready. There will also be other interesting features in this program.

Friday
March 14 Majors in Physical Education and a group of Sophomores in the two-year curriculum will be guests at the student-faculty tea this Friday. A list of the two-year students who were sent invitations is posted in the post office. If your invitation has not reached you, please call at the student office. Send your replies to Mr. and Mrs. Kasch.

Monday
March 17 ATTENTION! F.T.A. MEMBERS!! You are all urged to attend the gala St. Patrick's Day party to be held in the social room 8:00-9:30 Monday evening, March 17. A door prize will be given the person holding the lucky number. We have a bag full of surprises and hilarious entertainment for each and all. Door prizes, games, surprises and plenty of eats for all. Sign up on the slip provided in the post office if you think you will come so that we know how many to provide for. Do this today or Wednesday, or notify one of the officers in some other fashion. Most important of all, come! Don't forget to bring your dimes for the party or pay Madonna Hazen anytime before the meeting. WE EXPECT TO SEE YOU ALL THERE!

There will be a Commetor's meeting Monday, March 17 in Room Q at 7:00 p.m. Please pay your dues for the spring quarter at this meeting.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The library has turned over its extra copies of the Readers Digest and the National Geographic to the Student Union. They may be checked out of the concession room. If these are used enough, other magazines may be put in.

The Union will be closed during the party Friday night. At the request of the Student Council, the Union will be open Sunday afternoon from 2-5 and evening from 7-10:30. No dancing is permitted on Sunday.

Students are requested to secure their post office box numbers and to call for their mail regularly. Please check your box number on the list posted in the Post Office and call for your mail at least ONCE EVERY DAY. If your name has not been spelled correctly, kindly report it to the Business Office. Two students have been assigned one box which means that each student must be careful to take only mail addressed to him.

Grades for the winter quarter will be held in the Business Office for students who have any of the following charges: Library Fines, Textbooks not returned, and Fees in the Business Office.

The tuition for the spring quarter must be paid in the Business Office before Tuesday, March 18. The receipts for the spring quarter tuition must be presented before March 18 to the instructors.

Subjects may be dropped only with the approval of the adviser. Students who drop a course without permission will be dropped automatically from a second course and will receive a grade of "E" in each course. A student may drop a course during the first six weeks regardless of grade, but if he drops a course the last six weeks he will receive a grade of "E" if his work is failing at the time.

Students are required to leave their ADDRESSES and TELEPHONE numbers at the telephone in the Business Office if they were not located when they registered. This is important because we frequently find it necessary to locate students when not attending classes.

Students should inquire in the Textbook Library for lost books. Articles which have been lost may be claimed in the Business Office.

The Textbook Library will be open during the hours as scheduled on the door.

All new spring term officers have not yet been listed in the Student Organization Office. Please record these at once.

Freshmen and any other new students who have not had pictures taken for the permanent record folder in the deans' offices can report at the Christianson Studio, Saturday morning, March 15. Four pictures for twenty-five cents. One of these may be retained by the student and three are filed in college offices.

Do you wish to be next year's editor of the Talahi or Chronicle? If so, please note the following: All applications for the Chronicle and Talahi offices of editor and business manager must be made in writing to Eleanor Johnson, secretary of Publications Board or to Mr. A. E. Schneider by Tuesday, March 25. In the letter, please state your qualifications for the job you are applying for.
