Credits Checked: Students who wish to have their credits checked are asked to sign the schedule in the Post Office at the time when they can see the Registrar. Students who wish to avoid conflicts in their spring program are urged to make an appointment. The time will be reserved for the student in as far as is possible.

All students of the college who will be 21 years old when the next general election day, Tuesday, November 12, is at hand, are invited to a birthday party at the St. Cloud Armory on Friday, February 2nd. This will be an informal party which will include dancing, games, and a short program with perhaps a skit, or two, appropriate to the "new voters' recognition project" of which this party is the first event. Featured at the birthday party will be a huge cake, and an individual cake with a candle for each person.

Tickets to the party, which take the form of temporary registration cards, are now available in the business office. If you have had your 21st birthday since November, 1938 or if you will be 21 before November, 1940 you may obtain a card, regardless of where you will vote when the November election is held.

This birthday party is planned to honor you as a new voter. It is your party. Register today and secure your ticket for this gala affair.
