

Tuesday
Oct. 15      Listen to: Homecoming Radio Program, Tuesday, October 15,
7:00 P. M.      Station KFAM

Tonight, Tuesday evening, Oct. 15 at 7:30 P. M. is the night for the annual Pow Wow. We would like to see all Yo-Hi members at Talahi Lodge at that time. Be sure that you have paid your nickel to Norma Nelson, and then come prepared for fun!

Wednesday
Oct. 16      Who were the three highest candidates for the queenly crown? Marge Cline--Scotty Erickson--Betty Nolan! One of these will be crowned Friday night at the bon fire! Which one of these three representative girls do you want? The other two will be her attendants! Decide at the polls all day Wed.!. Vote for one! But remember to vote!

Mr. Howard Kittelson of Minneapolis will speak to the English Club at its regular meeting at 8:00 P. M. Wed., Oct. 16, in the Social Room. His subject is "The History and Development of Printing," and he will illustrate his lecture with interesting exhibits. This program has been arranged as a celebration of the 500th anniversary of Gutenberg's invention and the 400th anniversary of the introduction of printing in America. All students are welcome to attend. Admission is by membership card or 10¢.

See English Club exhibit containing illustrations of the development of printing and examples of interesting books at the Library. This display is posted in honor of the 500th anniversary of Gutenberg's invention of movable type and the 400th anniversary of the introduction of printing in America.

Registration for the Selective Service men who on Oct. 16 have reached their 21st birthday but not passed their 35th, will take place in this building in the Visual Education room. A special person has been assigned by the authorities to take care of the registration of our college students. Hours are from 7:00 A. M. to 9:00 P. M.

Diphtheria toxoid will be available in Health Service Wed. between 12-2 to anyone having had a positive Schick test. No charge.

During the fifth hour moving pictures covering the following topics will be shown in the Assembly Hall: Body Defenses, Alimentary Tract, Digestion, Heart and Circulation. All Health Education classes and any other interested persons are invited to take advantage of this unusual opportunity.

The Junior Class will hold a meeting, Wed. Oct. 16, the fifth hour, in the auditorium for the purpose of electing a secretary.

Girls--Don't forget tryouts for the Swimming pageant Wed. night at 8:00 o'clock at Eastman Hall We're expecting you.

Thursday
Oct. 17

Notice! All ye "husky" powerful Freshmen. Are you tired of your green caps? How would you like to go without them on Homecoming Day? All you have to do is get 20 of your mightiest freshmen to battle 20 mighty "men" of the Sophomore class in a tug of war at the Bon-Fire Friday evening. If you freshies win you are automatically freed of such a terrible burden as green caps and ribbons. On the other hand if you lose, don't be seen without them on Homecoming Day. Give your names to Charles Roth if you wish to take part.

Wanted! Twenty powerful sophomore men to show the freshmen a thing or two about strength in a tug of war. Sign up with Bernard Corbin by Thursday noon.

It's here! Homecoming Week! Get in the mood at the Homecoming Pep Fest Thurs. second hour. Meet those grand fellows responsible for our championship hopes this year. Hear the Locker Room Glee Club! You'll never forget it as long as you remember it.

Pictures for Talahi Juniors, Seniors, Sophomores can sign for Talahi pictures until M. E. A. If you are to use last year's pictures, see Mr. Christianson.

Players! Remember the meeting Thurs. Oct. 17, at 4:00 in the auditorium.

Friday
Oct. 18

The Chicago Little Philharmonic Orchestra, Fri. 8:00 P. M., State Teachers College Auditorium. Dr. Eric Sorantin, Conductor.

Monday
Oct. 21

The Commeters club will meet Oct. 21 at 7:00 P. M. in Room Q. Mr. Neil F. Hoyt will be the speaker.

Students wishing to earn credit in teaching during the Winter Quarter are called for conference in the auditorium on Mon., Oct. 21, at 4:10 and 5:10 to make application. Those having conflict for both hours should see the secretary in Riverview.

Tuesday
Oct. 22

Rural Life Club Members: Don't fail to be present at the next meeting, Oct. 22, 4th hour, in the Auditorium. Miss Griem will speak and show pictures of her trip to Guatemala. Bring your dues.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

All students majoring or minoring in the sciences are expected to check the list posted on the science bulletin board outside Room 5 this week and to make the necessary entries thereon to complete our records.

Subjects may be dropped only with the approval of the adviser. Students who drop a course without permission will be dropped automatically from a second course and will receive a grade of "E" in each course. A student may drop a course during the first six weeks regardless of grade, but if he drops a course the last six weeks he will receive a grade of "E" if his work is failing at the time.

Students should inquire in the Textbook Library for lost books. Articles which have been lost may be claimed in the Business Office.

Freshmen Men - Attention!! Meet in Room Q Wednesday the fifth hour.
Organization meeting for homecoming.

We are beginning another unit in the aeronautics course. There is still room for a few young men who can qualify. See Mr. Weismann if you are interested.

Lost: A red and gray Esterbrook pen. Finder please return to Bernice Bluhm, Box 35.

League of Women Voters meet Wednesday evening Room Q, 7:00-8:00 P. M.
New voters to be special guests. The program "The Process of Voting."