

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN

State Teachers College

St. Cloud, Minnesota

Vol. IV, No. 39

June 24, 1941

- Tuesday
June 24 Tonight! Hear and see Clarence Sorenson's illustrated lecture "Mexico's New Revolution" in the College Auditorium at eight o'clock.
- Wednesday
June 25 SPECIAL CONVOCATION. Hear Clarence Sorenson's lecture "This is South America".
- All-College Picnic and Play Day. College Woods. 2:00 P.M. to 6:00. Don't miss it!
- James S. Lombard of the University of Minnesota will be here on Wednesday in behalf of the University of Minnesota's Correspondence Study Courses.
- Thursday
June 26 Special GN train to the Eucharistic Congress leaves the station here at 7:00 A.M.
- The second book hour tea will be held at the Eastman Home at three o'clock on Thursday. Miss Ruth Moscrip will review Robert Sherwood's drama, There Shall Be No Night. Everyone is welcome.
- Saturday
June 28 Classes will be in session on Saturday, June 28. No classes on July 4, 5, 6, 7. Classes on July 8 as usual.
- Monday
June 30 Convocation "My Outdoors" by Mr. McIntosh.
- A demonstration in the use of crayon, chalk and other art media will be given in the Art Room Monday, June 30, at 2:30 by a representative of the Binney and Smith Company. All interested are cordially invited.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Reserve Line 3 o'clock Wednesday, June 25.

A fee of one dollar will be charged students who fail to take an examination as scheduled.

Students should inquire in the Textbook Library for lost books. Articles which have been lost may be claimed in the Business Office.

L. S. A'ers watch the L. S. A. Bulletin Board for announcement of a Program and Mixer early in July. Alumni who would like to spend an especially interesting vacation, plan to attend the Ashram at Lake Geneva, August 25-31. For details see Miss Helgen or Miss Hansen.

Students who are graduating from the two or the four-year courses in July should enroll in the Placement Bureau in Room "A" immediately.